The Nonprofit Incorporation Certificate

of the

CARBONDALE HISTORICAL SOCIETY AND MUSEUM

The Carbondale Historical Society and Museum was established on November 6, 1982, when the Carbondale Historical Society (inactive) and the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall, Inc. merged.

In 1974, when the Carbondale Historical Society was established, it was created as a branch of the Lackawanna Historical Society and functioned under the charter of the Lackawanna Historical Society. Later, the Carbondale Historical Society obtained its own charter.

The Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall, which was formed on November 6, 1981, was incorporated as a nonprofit organization on March 3, 1982, in the state of Delaware, with a Certificate of Authority to do business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. A copy of the Certificate of Incorporation (Delaware) of the Committee, and a copy of the Committee's Certificate of Authority to do business in Pennsylvania are given hereafter.

A copy of the Certificate of Incorporation (non-stock, non-profit) for the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum that was forwarded, on March 9, 1983, to the registered agent of The Carbondale Historical Society and Museum is given hereafter. This Certificate of Incorporation will be returned to the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum within the next ten days and a copy will be forwarded to the Executive Director of the Lackawanna County Department of Cultural Affairs, as soon as it is received, for insertion in this application for a grant-in-aid.
